

POV-CHILDRENS RIGHTS
IN OUR COMMUNITY-BALKAN BASED

YAG/CLT

INTRODUCTION

- CHALLENGES IN ACCESSING EDUCATION
LACK OF SCHOOL FACILITIES AND RESOURCES
FINANCIAL BARRIERS FOR FAMILIES
GENDER OR DISABILITY-RELATED CHALLENGES
NEED FOR BETTER TEACHER TRAINING AND CURRICULUM

Good Sides:

- Free primary education is widely available
- Strong emphasis on multilingual education
- Some government and NGO initiatives provide scholarships

Child Safety and Protection

- Government policies and child protection laws
- Role of law enforcement and social services
- Community efforts to prevent abuse and violence
- Importance of reporting and awareness programs
- Good Sides:
- Strong legal framework for child protection
- Increasing awareness and education programs
- Improved response systems for child abuse cases

Community Involvement in Children's Rights

How individuals can support children's education and safety

Role of NGOs and community programs

Encouraging advocacy and volunteering

Importance of reporting violations

Good Sides:

Active NGOs and civil society groups advocating for children's rights

Strong community and family support networks

Increasing youth participation in decision-making

Check out what young people from the Balkans think about children's rights:

<https://youtu.be/svD0cEhijbs>